

(dated: 08/2014)

Professional CV

Prof. Dr. Barbara Käsmann-Kellner
Born 1961, Berlin

1980

Higher education entrance qualification (Abitur)

Universities, locums, Graduate Dissertation1980 - 1986

Medical School of Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg

Locums of 6-8 weeks each in Bradford, Sheffield, Chesterfield und London (all UK)

1984 - 1986

Graduate Dissertation at the Institute of Pathology, University of Heidelberg

Topic: Sequels of inborn or acquired asplenia

1986 - 1987

Last year of Medical School: King's College, London

1987

Academic Promotion and Medical Approbation

Department of Ophthalmology, University of Heidelberg

(Chairman: Prof. Dr. H.E. Völcker)

1987 - 1991

House officer, junior and senior registrar for Ophthalmology
Main topics of interest during specialization: Histopathology of the eye, diagnosis and treatment including low vision aids of visually handicapped or blind patients, Retinopathy of prematurity

1991

Final exam to be registered and approved ophthalmologist

Department of Ophthalmology, University of Saarland

(Chairman: Prof. Dr. K.W. Ruprecht (until 2005), Chairman: Prof. Dr. B. Seitz (since 2006))

1991 - 1992

Head of the Outpatient Department, Leiterin der Poliklinik, Department of Ophthalmology, University of Saarland

1992, 1.12. contd.

Consultant of Paediatric Ophthalmology, Strabismus, Low Vision.

Head of the Section KiOLoN: Kinderophthalmologie (paediatric ophthalmology), Orthoptik, Low Vision, Neuroophthalmology, Department of Ophthalmology, University of Saarland

Ophthalmological Head of the State School for Orthoptics, University of Saarland

Since 1994, contd.

Continuous enlargement of a specialized center for low vision children, including early intervention, organizing a low vision clinics with a manufacturer-independent choice of optical, electronical and adaptive low vision aids. In-house cooperation with two large schools for blind and visually impaired children (County of Saarland, County of Rheinland-Pfalz)

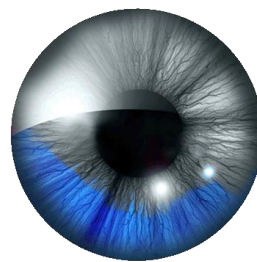

2000	Professional Research Thesis finished Topic: Phaenotypic differences in albinism, phaenotype-genotype-correlation
2003	Winning of tenure proceedings for a professorship to the Department of Ophthalmology, Christian-Albrecht-University Kiel
2004	Bestowal of an Extraordrinary Professorship, Medical Faculty, University of Saarland
Since 2007 contd.	Enlargement of the Low Vision Department, now including low vision and neuroophthalmological patients of all age groups. Continuous renewal and modernization of low vision aids
12/2012	Vocation by the Ministry of Social Affairs, Family & Health of Saarland to act as Ophthalmological Consultant for blind and visually handicapped citizens of Saarland in case of medical and / or social insurance judgment discrepancies
Publications	59 papers in peer-reviewed national and international journals (Medline) 9 book chapters published, 4 in press Ca 35 papers in journals not medline-indexed > 200 lectures at scientific conferences Academic teaching and organization of the University's course in Ophthalmology Patient orientated teaching

Honorary ongoing consultancies

Since 1995	Ophthalmological and Low Vision Consultant for NOAH Germany National Organisation for Albinism and Hypopigmentation 1999: Website medical informations on albinism → www.albinismus.info
1996 – 2002	Foundation of the German Nystagmus Network with Markus Ehm and creation of web page www.nystagmus.de
Since 2005	Ophthalmological and Low Vision Consultant for Achromatopsie Selbsthilfe e.V. Deutschland – Support group for achromatopsia
Since 2007	Ophthalmological and Low Vision Consultant for Leona e.V. Association of parents with children having chromosomal aberrations
Seit 2007	Ophthalmological and Low Vision Consultant for the network rehakids.de which is a large community for parents with multiply handicapped children
Since 2010	Ophthalmological and Low Vision Advisor to the German Aniridia support group www.aniridie-wagr.de

Albinismus
Selbsthilfegruppe e.V.

www.aniridie-wagr.de